SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, the defendant shall be on supervised release for a term of thirty (30) years on Count One.

While on supervised release, the defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime and shall not illegally possess a controlled substance. The defendant shall comply with the standard and special conditions that have been adopted by this court (set forth below). If this judgment imposes a restitution obligation, it shall be a condition of supervised release that the defendant pay any such restitution that remains unpaid at the commencement of the term of supervised release. The defendant shall comply with the following additional conditions:

The defendant shall not own, possess or have under his control any firearm, dangerous weapon or other destructive device as defined in 18 U.S.C. § 921.

The defendant shall report in person to the probation office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from the custody of the Bureau of Prisons.

The defendant shall refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. The defendant shall submit to one drug test within 15 days of placement on supervised release and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter as directed by the probation officer.

The defendant shall cooperate with DNA collection at the direction of the probation officer.

The defendant shall submit to a search and seizure of his person or property at the direction of the probation officer.

The defendant shall make a full and complete disclosure of finances and submit to an audit of financial documents, at the request of the probation officer.

The defendant shall not incur new credit or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the probation officer.

The defendant shall not possess or use any device of any kind, including but not limited to a computer, Blackberry, i-Phone, internet-enabled television or other device capable of accessing the internet. The defendant may possess one computer, provided that computer is disabled from accessing the internet. The defendant shall provide to his probation officer all passwords and other information necessary to access the defendant's computer. The defendant shall identify to his probation officer the model, location, owner and serial number of the single computer that the defendant is allowed to possess and the defendant shall allow the probation officer to search the computer and any data or other information on it, at the request of the probation officer. If the defendant seeks to replace the computer he is allowed to have, the defendant shall first request permission to do so from his probation officer and he shall comply with all the requirements of this paragraph in using the replacement computer.
